About This Content

This Hired Sword is a new Hero-type unit that can be recruited to further customize your roster. The Wolf-Priest of Ulric is available for the Sisters of Sigmar and the Human Mercenaries.

Ulric is the god of wolves, war and winter. In some of the Northern provinces, he is venerated even above Sigmar by peasants and nobles alike. Those who enter his priesthood are fierce and hardened men, embodying the primal nature of their god. Grim warriors in their own right, these Priests are able to instill in their comrades the cold howl of Ulric, inspiring them to feats of bravery and savagery.

The Wolf-Priest of Ulric has access to a unique new set of skills and spells:

Active skills

- Wild Swipe: A melee attack that deals regular damage to enemies in an arc and cannot be parried. Only usable with Great Weapons.
- Crush the Weak: A melee attack that deals regular damage. If hit, the target gains a debuff that reduces Critical Resistance.
- Alpha Howl: Increases Initiative and Charge/Ambush range of allies around the Skill User.

Passive skills

- Heart of the Wolf: Increases the chance to pass All Alone, Fear, Terror, and Leadership tests.
- Ulric's Chosen: Increases Spellcasting chance and Critical Hit Damage.
- Ulric's Fury: After dealing melee Damage, Spell Damage increases.
- Northern Tenacity: After dealing melee damage, Critical Resistance increases.

Magic Spells

- Ulric's Gift: Increases melee Hit chance and melee Damage. Grants immunity to All Alone. Prevents the use of Flee, Disengage, and ranged attacks and skills.
- Wild Pack: Grants immunity to Fear and provokes Fear on engaged enemies, reducing melee Hit chance.
- Howl of the Wolf: Reduces the cost of Charge. When another ally is engaged with the same enemy, increases melee Hit chance and Critical hit chance.
- Winter's Chill: Enemies engaged with target receive a debuff that reduces melee Hit chance and melee Damage.
- Snow King's Decree: When target performs a melee or ranged attack, inflicts damage to itself. Priests of Ulric are immune.
- Ice Storm: Deals damage and reduces maximum and current Offense Points.
- Frost's Bite: Deals damage and reduces maximum Strategy Points. Bypasses Armour Absorption.
- Blessing of Ulric: Increases Melee Critical hit chance and Critical damage.

The Wolf-Priest of Ulric can also have access to the "Righteous Fury", "Divine Aegis" and "Absolute Faith" Warband Skills of the Sisters of Sigmar and the "Guard Stance" Warband Skill of the Mercenaries.

Pretty entertaining game with awesome music and high replay value. Some levels are ultra tough to beat for the first time, but once you learn how, you will own it.. Very nice game. It picks up the best bits from Heroes of Might and Magic series.

It\u2019s not long, but done with great attention to details.

I love to support developer like this one.. Another one of the series. I remember my grandfather gifting me the original BC3000 AD. While the game was awesome and fun, I never really understood it. After all I was just in my early teen. I was quite surprised, when later on more versions appeared and I got Battlecruiser Millenium Gold as well as Universal Combat. It was more or less by accident, when I found this one. Of course it was a must get for me.

I have to admit, that the graphic improvements are cool. The manual has been made more clear since BCMG and the tutorial is especially useful. This said, I have a Terran Military ACM career ongoing and I also have a ROAM trader career going on alongside another ROAM Terran Military career. The game is fun and its quite a diversion. Yes, in ROAM there are no missions, but there are plenty of things to do. As trader you can look out for cargo, buy and sell... or you could be a Raider, attacking other pirates, the military, police or whatever for your gain... as a military ROAM commander, you can escort diplomats, enforce peace, capture stations, and whatever. All you need is some imagination.

Then there is the option to be a Pilot or Elite Pilot... on a planetary base or ship or spacestation. Another option and quite an easier start. Even in ROAM you can get XP and get promoted. Then lastly, there are Marines... though I prefer them in Instant Action. A Marine ROAM game has been quite dull so far... There are attacks every now and then. You have access to the ground facilities, such as Tanks, APCs, Support Stations, Transporter Gates and of course the gunships to move around. Hence you can do a lot, even as a Marine - as long as you are on a planet. But still, in my option it is limited and marines die quickly... though if you are good at it.. a different thing. Then there are the space marines or elite marines.. This part in my opinion is really boring. You have not the options you have on planet and are mostly stuck on top of your station waiting for an attack. Here some improvement would be great.

What i noticed is, that the non-combat professions, other than Traders and are quite dull. Scientists of course can explore the galaxy in a transporter, look at uninhabited and habitated worlds but still its dull. Diplomats essentially have nothing to do, unless you RP travelling to base to imagine some negotiations... then there are the Assassins, constantly looking to hunt pirates. So quite dull too. I have also tried a paramedic career which is quite uneventful in ROAM either. You do not get attacked by anybody usually, but you also get an unarmed transporter with only a handful of shuttles. Of course you get some armed escorts, but still. The only thing I noticed here, was constantly patrolling the galaxy, looking out for a ship in distress. You would then try to get there, tow it to a base and get a reward. Of course you can also trade with your vessel.. Still, quite dull.

I know Derek Smart always said, it is a combat game. Nothing else. However, since these professions are there, it would be fun to make more use of them.. Have colonists colonize planets or build cities, Maybe create some interiors for the ships and have space marines invade them or Paramedics board them to heal injured people after an attack... maybe script some ACM missions for Diplomats and alike.. things like that would make this already great game really awesome!

Once you get higher in rank you can control other friendly units, form fleets. You can start planetary assaults, land in a shuttle or beam down, launch probes, etc. All these parts are complex and difficult, but great and fun! If you take the time to understand the game and read through the manual and do the tutorial of course.

That said, I love the game and I am happy it is still around. It is also very nice to know, that this game is running on Linux. Steam Play works fine and without issues, aside from some very rare sporadic crashes after some hours into the game (Save or Quick Safe regularly) and some unreadable or hard to read text, which in my opinion is also only a minor issue.

Great work on that one. I hope there will be some more patches and further improvement. This game has a lot of potential still and I hope that we will see some of it.

Cheers. MADE ME WANT TO KILL A HOMELESS MAN AFTER I KILLED EVERYONE WITH A TACTICAL NUKE WHILE DOING A 420 DANK SCOPE. 8V8 M8 WOULD ATE AGAIN.. Lejemy lewak\u00f3w :V. The scenery is interesting, but that's about all there is to this incredibly short point-and-click adventure game. The voice acting is sub-par, and the story flimsy. Most of the action consists in collecting random objects that everyone has carelessly strewn about the monestary. The logic puzzles are mostly achievable and mildly diverting, except for one mini-game near the end that consists of a bejeweled-style "battle" with a Knight Templar. It perhaps wouldn't have been so bad if it weren't a timed exercise. I nearly didn't finish the game on account of the task, but finally decided to skip it to press on to the uninspiring end.. Awesomeness. horrible driving model,driving this loco on keyboard is like driving your car and steering with your legs. definitely not worth 14e => refund

270 hours played and nothing but love for the game. Why did they go back on the season pass promise of including all future DLC? Can't recommend the pass based on that.. If you enjoy:

- Playing as a cube of meat
- Parkour
- Bandages
- Sawblades
- Jumping in those sawblades
- Dying
- Unlocking awesome characters, each with their own abilities
- A fetus in a jar, wearing a nice sharp suit

- Missiles
- Needles
- Zombies
- Dying again
- Screaming worms
- A giant chainsaw with legs
- A giant lump of tissue that wants a hug
- Dying again
- 8-bit goodness
- Seeing replays of yourself dying again
- Epic video game references
- Dying again
- DUN DUN DUUUUUNNNNN!
- Dying again
- Dying again
- A level editor
- Dying again
- Dying again
- Dying again
- An awesome soundtrack by Danny Baranowsky
- Dying again
- Alleys of cotton
- Dying agai-

Then this game is for you!. Finding Hidden Rooms: The Game

All the fun of a mindless gorefest wrapped up in a giant interconnected world with impressive level design and backtracking out the♥♥♥♥♥♥ There's a level system, but it doesn't really stop you at any point for being underleveled; just makes your potential to bomb the♥♥♥♥♥♥out of demons better. Make sure to play co-op with a few friends and friendly fire for best results.. One of the best puzzle platformer games out right now. It is CHALLENGING! Don't let the cartoonish looks fool you, this requires you to use your brains at times!. When I purchased the original Season Pass the terms were that ALL future expansions would be included, and they were right up until the new Beasts expansion, which inexplicably was not included. I feel as though I was robbed.
